SILVERDALE'S EASY VICTORY.

Harlem had rain and a lot of it yesterday and consequently the races were run over a track fetlock deep in slushy mud. The attendance did not seem to be hurt to any great extent, however, and the grandstand and betting ring were packed.

As is generally the case when a track is muddy close finishes were not in order and the sport in comparison with previous days at Harlem, was quite tame.

The Junior Stakes for two-year-olds, with a value of $1,800, at five and one-half furlongs was the feature of an ordinary card, which was greatly reduced by scratching owing to the bad weather conditions. Nine youngsters were named through the entry box Wednesday night to start in the stake, but Silverdale frightened them all out with the exception of Rome Respass' Grandon, and to keep the race from being a total failure Princess Tatyana and Sig Levy were added. As far as an interesting contest was concerned the stake was not worth one-quarter of the amount of money guaranteed; but the public like to see stake horses parade, and although Silverdale virtually had a walk-over it seemed to please the crowd, who applauded the colt and his rider, Bullman, when they came cantering home about a half dozen lengths in front of Grandon and Princess Tatyana. The aforesaid pair had it hammer and tongs for second place, and the Princess, driving and staggering, was beaten by a head in the last stride.

The first event furnished the only exciting bit of racing during the afternoon, Paletou, a good-looking colt by Major Richards—Miscue, winning by a head from Matin. The latter was by far the best and was beaten through a peculiar circumstance. It seems that he is afraid of the wire which is stretched across the track for the judges' benefit, and whenever he gets near it he shys. Ezell asked the judges if it would be possible to have the wire removed before the race and explained Matin's peculiarity to them. The judges declined to take the wire down and thereby had the experience of seeing Matin duck his head just as Ezell said he would, and thereby be beaten.

The air was full of vague rumors before the fifth race and it was common talk around the ring that Dr. Walmsley, the natural favorite, was not "meant" and Heigh Ho was whispered about as being "the real jam." The betting had a suspicious look and on the way to the post, judge Hamilton called Rose, who had the mount on Dr. Walmsley, up and gave him a good talking to. Evidently the judge's lecture had a good effect on Rose, for he rode a fine race on the Doctor and beat the supposed "good thing," Heigh Ho, with ease.

"Lucky" Baldwin's Derby candidate, Norford, performed in the third event, and what he did to an ordinary lot of three-year-olds was a caution. This handsome son of Emperor of Norfolk—Miss Ford, built on the same lines as his sire was, seemed to revel in the mud and won from end to end, being pulled up five lengths in front of Wax at the finish.

Orion had an easy time in beating Little Regie and Abe Furst in the second event, and The Lady, with only 90 pounds and J. Walsh on her back, ran away from Molo and Erwin in the closing mile and fifty yards condition race.

Jockey Enos rode a smashing good race on Paletou, winner of the first race and also handled Norford with skill in his race. This jockey does very little riding but what he does ride is always close to the money.

For being late in the paddock with Astor, Lockhart Bros. were fined $25.

Obsidian pulled up bleeding in the second race.

Christopher C. Chinn, famed as a starter, was among the arrivals at Harlem yesterday. "Kit" is a member of the firm of Chinn & Forsythe.

Senator Thompson ran away two miles in his race. The gelding is a bad actor and his entry will be refused at Harlem in future.

Starter Dwyer did not use a barrier in sending away the fractious field in the fifth race.

The crowd, despite the weather, was equal to that of Wednesday. Business Manager Miers said that there wasn't a difference of twenty-five spectators in the two days.

William J. Ewing, managing editor of the Nashville American, who, fifteen years ago, was one of the best known turf writers in America, is in Chicago. In the old days Mr. Ewing wrote over the nom de plume of "Blue Wing." He had a famous race horse named for him, and the horse showed prominently in one of the Brooklyn Handicaps. Mr. Ewing is here for the American Derby, and is, incidentally, taking in the races at Harlem.

MORE DERBY TRIALS.

There was plenty of work at Washington Park yesterday, and Lieutenant Gibson did another sensational workout. Breaking from the half mile with a stable boy up, and carrying about 110 pounds, he ran the mile and a-half in 2:35, the fractional time being 12½ seconds, 25, 37, 49, 1:04, 1:17, 1:29, 1:42, 1:55, 2:09, 2:22 and 2:35. Garry Hermann, with Bullman up, ran with Gibson for the last half mile. Gibson pulled up strong, and without showing any signs of distress.

Barrick worked James a mile and three-eighths in 2:25 with Mitchell up, carrying 116 pounds. The colt broke at the three-quarter pole, the fractional time being 12½ seconds, 25, 37, 51, 1:04, 1:17, 1:31, 1:44, 1:57, 2:11, 2:25. Mitchell was pulling the colt up in the last eighth. Barrick was well satisfied with the work as the colt pulled up fresh and sound.

Green Morris sent his pair a mile each. Silver Garter with Bullman up has the heart to work, and he did the fastest work of the morning. He covered the mile in 1:42½, the fractions being 12½, 24½, 38½, 49½, 1:02, 1:14½, 1:28½, 1:42½.

Pupil's time was 1:45½, the fractions being 13, 26, 39, 50½, 1:03½, 1:16½, 1:30½ and 1:45½.

Yellow Tail moved three-quarters in 1:17.

Sidney Lucas had a slow gallop of two miles.

He will work today.

Advance Guard arrived from Harlem at 10 o'clock, having taken since 7 o'clock on the journey. In spite of the track being sticky and the rain falling he was sent a mile and an eighth about 3 o'clock with 118 pounds. He covered the route in 2:04½, the fractions being 29½ seconds, 44½, 59, 1:12, 1:24, 1:38, 1:51½ and 2:04½.

HORSES SOLD.

Drogheda, that has proved himself to be the best two-year-old colt exhibited here this spring, was sold Wednesday by Owen Bradley, acting for Gus Strauss, to H. Eugene Leigh for $3,000. The deal was made by telegraph, and one of the conditions was that the colt be shipped at once to Leigh at Sheephead Bay. Drogheda was accordingly scratched from the third race and last night was expressed to his new owner. The colt is by Russell—Minnehaha III., and his races on local tracks entitle him to be rated the best youngster here. He will, without a doubt, prove a winner on eastern tracks.

Tom McDowell Wednesday received a telegram from Woodford Clay, announcing that he had sold his good three-year-old colt Philippine, that he recently took east after his slashing good races at Newport. The message did not say to whom the colt was sold, but it stated that a good price was realized. Mr. McDowell believed that Philippine was purchased by Phil Chinn for Jacob Worth, an easterner, who is gathering a big stable.—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

Winner—B. c. by Stonehenge—Margery.

Went to post at 2:35. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Oliver Mc handled his weight well, avoided the early fast pace and ran away from his field at the stretch turn. Buffoon was outrun in the early stages of the race, but made up much ground and fought it out gamely with Tinge. The latter ran his race. Einer closed a big gap. Grayless was slow to break and was shut out in the first sixteenth. Tulane showed early speed.

Oliver Mc, place, 21 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Buffoon, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Tinge, show, 1 to 2.

Time, 1:01½.

Winner—Br. c. by Farandole—Orchid.

Went to post at 3:10. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Prince of Melrose showed the most speed of the field, was lucky and well ridden. Beau Gallant ran a good race and closed up a lot of ground. Minion ran his race. Luke Ward would have been third with a stronger ride. Spinel showed plenty of speed but tired. Prince Stonemouth was shut out at the start. Termless was a false alarm.

Scratched—18449 Rappenecker, 115.

Overweights—Prince Stonemouth, 1 pound.

Prince of Melrose, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Beau Gallant, place, 9 to 10; show, 1 to 2. Minion, show, evens. Termless, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. h. by Deceiver—Maudlin.

Went to post at 3:39. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won cleverly; second and third driving. Decater ran a good race and received a good ride, but had to be hustled a bit at the end to stall off Greyfeld. The latter ran his race in his present form. Blueaway was outrun early, but closed with a good burst of speed. Ildrim ran the best race. He got tangled up at the start and was poorly ridden, but made up a lot of ground. Belle of Lexington was off flying, but tired and fell back after running a fast six furlongs.

Scratched—18500 Lothario, 118; 18680 Kinnikinnick, 109.

Overweights—Decater, 1 pound; Favonius, 2.

Winner—B. c. by Galore—Conjectrix.

Went to post at 4:09. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Contestor showed his usual speed and was lucky, but was all out at the finish. Brigadier ran his race. He had all the best of the weights and has probably been overrated. Killashandra ran a good race for her first appearance this year. The race will do her good. Vulcain was overweighted. Gold 'Or was pinched out just after the start and Taber pulled him up.

Scratched—18648 Lady Uncas, 111.

Contestor, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Brigadier, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Killashandra, show, evens.

Winner—B. c. by Major Richards—Miscue.

Went to post at 2:20. At post 3 minutes. Start poor. Won driving to the limit; second the same. Paleto, for a new beginner, ran a smashing good race. He showed a fine turn of speed, was well ridden, and hung on like grim death when the pinch came. Matin should have won. He was handicapped by Bergen, and a peculiar circumstance beat him with victory in sight at the end. Matin is afraid of the wire, and in his work always "ducks" when he gets to it. Owner Ezell asked the judges to remove the wire before the race, which they could not do, and just as Ezell stated, Matin "ducked" when he saw it and it cost him the race. Ericssell liked the going and ran a good race. Bullman hustled Fred Hessig along for all he was worth in the first furlong, but the colt would not extend himself in the going. Invictus had no chance from where he got away.

Scratched—17843 Sig Levy, 112; (18609) Henry Burt, 112.

Paleton, place, 6 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Matin, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Ericssell, show, 4 to 1. Fred Hessig, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Invictus, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5.

Went to post at 2:55. At post 14 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third the same. Orion broke flying and always had everything his own way. He is a useful horse, especially in the mud. Little Reggie handled her weight well and ran a good race. Throw ABE Furst's race out. His performance does not represent his true form. There was little or no exciting action in the race the field being badly strung out all the way. Senator Thompson threw his rider at the post and ran away. This was the cause of the delay at the post.

Winner—B. c. by Emperor of Norfolk—Miss Ford.

Went to post at 3:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third the same. Norford revealed in the going and made a runaway race of it. He had speed to loan. Wax ran a fair race. Benalder slipped and slid and never really got into his stride until the race was over. Sidbow and Troubaline both labored in the going and both pulled up very tired.

Winner—Ch. c. by Faverdale—Golden Rod II.

Went to post at 4:00. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second and third were driving to the limit. Silverdale is a colt of good class, is especially fond of mud and was in a soft spot. He galloped under a stout pull all the way and won with the greatest ease. Grandon liked the heavy going and displayed great gameness. Under a hand ride the latter closed a big gap in the stretch and got second place in the last few strides. Princess Tatyana showed a lot of speed, but was out to the last ounce and staggering at the end. Sig Levy was roughly treated on the backstretch and when he got in the rack he refused to try.

Scratched—18613 Lasance, 118; 18643 Tenny Belle, 115; (17866) Sofala, 120; 18465 Benson Caldwell, 121; 18641 Denizulu, 118; 18581 Rio de Altar, 118; Forkford, 111.

Silverdale, place, out. Grandon, place, 4 to 1; show, out. Princess Tatyana, place, 6 to 5; show, out. Sig Levy, place, 6 to 5; show, out.

Winner—B. h. by Prince Royal—Penelope.

Went to post at 4:30. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily at the end after an early drive; second and third were under keen pressure. Dr. Walmsley was the best, well ridden, revealed in the going and won like a good race horse. He was outrun in the first part of the race and under keen pressure at the head of the stretch, but in the last twenty yards he had everything his own way. Heigh Ho liked the going, had no mischances and ran a good race. Bassinger, on Heigh Ho, carried Dr. Walmsley wide on the stretch turn. Barney F. finished stoutly and would have been second in a few more strides. Emma M. showed her usual amount of speed.

Scratched—18577 O'Connell, 101; 18349 Ben Ledi, 106; 18639 Lucille Bramble, 95; 16785 Lucky Monday, 102; 18639 Mountebank, 86; 16680 Belle of Holmdel 97; 18048 Nairete, 99.

Overweights—Rival Dare, 3 pounds; Pillage, 2; Judge Pettus, 2.
Dr. Walmsley, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Heigh Ho, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Barney F., show, 7 to 5.

Winner—B. f. by Kingston—Seville.

Went to post at 5:10. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second whipped out. The Lady is in excellent form, had a good rider up and beat her field like cracking sticks. She is a good filly and is deserving of attention in any company, especially under light weight. Mollo was right there all the way and did his best. The first two outran the others from the start. Cogmoosey seemed unable to extend himself in the going.

Scratched—18582 Volicer, 95; 18579 Cambrian, 110; 18558 Maggie Davis, 102; 18410 Sam McKeever, 110; 18408 Jim McCleavy, 112; 18582 Hurricane, 112; 18293 Sea Knight, 111; 18640 Arthur Behan, 98; 18614 Rinaldo II., 106; 18352 John A. Morris, 110.

The Lady, place, out. Mollo, place, 1 to 2. Erwin, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. c. by Rossington—Rosemary.
Went to post at 2:38. At post 16 minutes. Start good. Won ridden out. The next three were driving. Rockingham was best but was lucky also. He had clear sailing all the way. Dulac was cut off at the half or he might have been troublesome. Julia Rose ran a good race. She can win in company like this. Brightie S. closed ground in the stretch but hardly ran her race. Fleeting Ray showed early speed. Match Box can do better. So can Fourth Ward.
